The Five First Saturdays of Reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary

In 1925, the Blessed Virgin appeared and gave to Sister Lucia of Fatima the following promise: The Most Holy Virgin said, "...I promise to assist at the hour of death, with the graces necessary for salvation, all those who, on the first Saturday of five consecutive months, shall confess, receive Holy Communion, recite five decades of the Rosary, and keep me company for fifteen minutes while meditating on the fifteen Mysteries of the Rosary, with the intention of making reparation to me."

(Exposition, Rosary, prayers, after 8:30 am Mass)

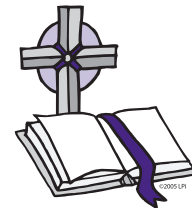

Note: Our Lord told Sister Lucia that the confession may be made at any time during the eight days after (or before) the First Saturday. Moreover, He said, "It could be longer still, provided that, when they receive Me, they are in a state of grace and have the intention of making reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary."

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION on FIRST SUNDAYS of the MONTH begins the FIRST SUNDAY in DECEMBER

Beginning on the first Sunday in December, Sunday Dec. 6th, and continuing on the first Sundays of every month thereafter, our parish will offer Eucharistic adoration immediately after the first two morning Masses: after the 7am Mass until about 9:45am; and again after the 10am Mass until about 11:45am (before the noon Mass). Our Lord in the Holy Eucharist will be exposed on the altar, in the monstrance, to allow people to spend quiet time with Jesus, to speak to Him heart to Heart, and to worship and adore the real, substantial Presence of His Body and Blood in the Most Blessed Sacrament.

The idea to have Eucharistic adoration between Masses was discussed at the last Holy Name Society meeting, and the men of the Society unanimously supported this worthy effort; the Holy Name is going to make sure that at least one of their members is present during the hours between Masses when the Eucharist is exposed on the altar.

Archbishop ListECKI says that a mark of being an “intentional disciple” of Jesus is a willingness to worship Our Lord – at Mass, in the Eucharist; and Eucharistic adoration allows us to continue, after Mass, to worship and adore Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

Why should we spend some extra time with our Eucharistic Lord outside of Mass? Listen to the testimonies of the Saints:

St. John Vianney (+ 1859), patron of all priests, says: “We should consider those moments spent before the Blessed Sacrament as the happiest of our lives.”

St. Peter Julian Eymard (+ 1897), founder of the Blessed Sacrament Fathers, reminds us: “We can actually come and adore Him like the shepherds; we can prostrate ourselves before Him like the Magi; we need no longer regret our not having been present at Bethlehem or on Calvary.”

And St. Peter Eymard exhorts us with these words: “Adore and visit Jesus abandoned and forsaken by men in His Sacrament of love. Man has time for everything except for visits to his Lord and God, who is waiting and longing for him in His tabernacle.”

We invite everyone to stay at least for a brief period after Mass on the first Sundays of the month, to pray and worship our Lord in the Holy Eucharist. And we ask everyone to leave Mass in complete silence on these Sundays, and also ask that people speak only in low voices in the entrance area of the church and keep the inside doors closed out of respect for Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

What To Say To Your Children Concerning Same-Sex “Marriage”

(7/23/15) <http://thewandererpress.com/featured-today/what-to-say-to-your-children-concerning-same-sex-marriage/>

In the aftermath of the recent Obergefell v. Hodges Supreme Court decision legalizing “same-sex marriage,” many Catholic parents will be trying to find appropriate and effective ways of explaining to their children what marriage is and how same-sex couples do not qualify for that noble and time-honored institution. Jocelyn Pollard prepared an explanation in the form of a letter to her four daughters. Hopefully, this piece will provide a helpful guide for parents who, in the light of a society that is becoming increasingly anti-Catholic, are trying to teach the true nature of marriage to their own children.

To My Dear Daughters:

Marriage is a profoundly special gift from God. Jesus pointed out that a man and a woman leave their parents and live together and become two-in-one-flesh. This bonding is so strong that no one can break it. They cannot divorce. They will be married until one of them dies. Jesus says that if one spouse leaves the other and enters into a sexual relationship with another, he or she is committing adultery; that is, by leaving his spouse, the person is offending the union of his marriage and is not now in a second marriage.

The sexual union of the married couple is so profound that God has made this act to be an act of creation and a sacrament. The married couple is permitted to cooperate with God in creating a new life. In this way the family is an image of God who is a Trinity of Persons, who, through the love of husband and wife love, bring forth a new creation. This is why sexual relations are permitted only within marriage: because the sexual act bonds the man and woman together into one, and because it produces children.

The best setting for this act, therefore, is marriage. The man and the woman will be emotionally and psychologically protected in the permanent relationship only found in marriage. Children born to the couple are best protected when their parents are married and stay together.

“Matrimony,” another word for marriage, comes from the Latin word “mater,” which means “mother.” Through matrimony, the woman will become a mother. One might say, “What if the couple can’t have children because of a physical problem? Are they still married?” Yes. It is a great sadness when a married couple cannot conceive and carry a child. But in their marriage they can still act as a mother and a father to children in their extended family or in society who need motherly and fatherly love. They can adopt orphans and become their parents. They can be spiritual parents, and as a couple, pray for children who need them.

The roles of mother and father are mysterious but necessary for the development of the child. A child requires the unique influence of both the mother’s femininity and the father’s masculinity in his development as a whole person. Marriage is a complementary union; that is, one in which a man and a woman are like interlocking parts, who, through their sexual bonding, may create a child. A so-called “same-sex marriage” lacks this complementary union.

A homosexual couple cannot physically perform the sexual act that leads to the creation of children. They have only one gender — either male or female — so if they adopt and raise a child, that child is lacking the influence of the male or female parent. The homosexual couple may love each other and want to live together, but that is not enough to make a marriage.

To put things in a nutshell, marriage is the complementary union of one man and one woman who share an unbreakable bond until death. It is perfected by love and enriched by God’s loving grace. Finally, the married couple is open to the blessing that God confers upon them in the form of new life.

Christmas Giving Tree 2015

This year OLMC is again sponsoring a "Gift Giving Tree". We will be helping families from Bain and The Brass Schools. A Christmas tree with tags on it will be located in the entryway of the church. Please take tag(s) the weekends of November 21st and 22nd, November 28th and 29th and after the weekday Masses from November 23rd through December 4th. Please purchase a gift appropriate for the tag, wrap it, and attach the tag so we will know how to direct the gift.

Please return the gift back to the church no later than the 12:00noon Mass on Sunday, December 6th. Please note that this year again the gifts will be for individuals 18 and under.

The gifts will be taken to the schools, and the school faculty will then deliver them to the homes of the families.

Please help to brighten Christmas for these families. Money donations would also be appreciated for the project. Please put monetary donations in an envelope marked "Gift Giving Tree" and place it in the collection basket.

If you take a tag from the tree, please be sure to return a gift by the deadline of December 6th so that no one is left out. This is very important because all tags must be accounted for on December 6th.

Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

Anyone wishing to volunteer their help should contact Tom Aiello at ta@kenoshalaw.com or in the evening at 942-1253.

Thank you.

St. Elizabeth St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry

Because of the sale of the St. Casmir's property, the St. Elizabeth St. Vincent de Paul pantry, which was located at Casmir's, has now moved to St. James Parish Hall, 5400 Sheridan Rd.

Please keep this in mind, and if you know of any who are in need of food to have them call 262-358-1275 on Tuesday's between 9AM and 10AM.

Eucharistic Adoration

Come and spend some time this week in worship of Our Lord in the Holy Eucharist! Eucharistic Adoration is held every Tuesday at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel from noon until 5:30 pm.

We can spend no better time on earth than that spent with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament!
