Guide to the Catechism of the Catholic Church

The Second Coming of Christ

Alfred McBride, O. Praem.

“The full right to judge all human deeds and human consciences belongs to Christ as the redeemer of the world,”
Catechism, 679.

In The Clowns of God, novelist Morris West depicted the end of the world near the year 2000. The fictional Pope Gregory XVII is called by God to write an encyclical, “In These Last Fateful Years of the Millennium.” The College of Cardinals convened and opposed the publication of the encyclical. If he refused, they would declare him mentally incompetent and force his abdication. The story continues against a background of nuclear threats and superpower rivalry. I will not spoil it for anyone by revealing the ending. As Catholics, we believe that we are already in the “last days.” We believe this world will end some day and that Jesus will come to judge the living and the dead. “Children, it is the last hour” (1 Jn 2:18).

The Last Days

Jesus Christ ascended into heaven forty days after His resurrection. His resurrection and ascension revealed Him as Lord of heaven and earth as well as all of history. The Father has “put all things beneath his feet and gave him as head over all things to the Church, which is his body” (Eph 1:22-23). Though He is in heaven, He is also on earth in the Church through the redemption of each of us and in the world at large by the power of the Holy Spirit. Jesus calls us to proclaim the mystery of His salvation and to make present as much as we can the reality of His kingdom of love, justice, and mercy. Our witness in word and deed should invite all to faith in the person and message of Jesus Christ.

No One Knows the Hour

“But of that day or hour no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father” (Mk 13:32). Certain Christian sects claim to know the date and the exact historical and political circumstances that foretell the Second Coming. They have always been wrong. The Church follows Christ’s teaching that it is useless to speculate about timing. What is important is to see earthly trials, tragedies, and persecutions as opportunities for growth in faith and trust in God. The last book of the Bible, Revelation, teaches us that no matter how difficult circumstances become, God’s love will prevail. A surge of evil will mark the end times. But Jesus will come to defeat evil and judge all. We are tempted to think we live in the worst of times. Many other ages have thought the same. Our calling is to live in hope—despite all appearances and to trust in the power of Jesus Christ the Lord.

Reflection

What is the spiritual message of the Ascension?

The Ascension of Jesus reveals Him as Lord of all through His Church. But all peoples and things are not yet effectively brought under Christ’s rule (Catechism, 680).

Is it possible to know the date of the end of the world?

No. Jesus says, “But of that day and hour no one knows, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but the Father alone” (Mt 24:36; Catechism, 673).

What will happen on Judgment Day?

On Judgment Day, at the end of the world, Christ will come in glory to accomplish the definitive triumph of good over evil. In judging the living and the dead, the Christ of glory will reveal the secret disposition of hearts and will reward each one of us according to our welcome or refusal of His grace (Catechism 681-682).

Prayer

O Christ of glory, merciful judge, rule our hearts now that we may come to the judgment with hope and love rather than with fear and trembling. Lead us to witness your salvation and kingdom now that we may participate in your glory at the end of time.

Festival Corner

FESTIVAL 2016:

This year Mt. Carmel will be celebrating our 69th Annual Festival, something our parish family is very proud of. The dates this year are July 8-9-10. Along with our traditional religious procession on Sunday we will have our great Homemade Pasta Dinner on Friday and Saturday evening. Great thanks goes to the Ladies Society for an amazing amount of hard work they put into that. We have this year some outstanding entertainment lined up. That is now posted on Mt. Carmel's Facebook Page. It will be advertised all over soon. Please pass and share that info on your personal FB pages.

We are now ready to start collecting items for the White Elephant Booth for our Festival. Any household items except clothing will be accepted. Please contact the Parish Office only during regular business hours at 652-7660 or Anna Darbutus at 657-5848 or Tom Rizzo at 595-0525 anytime.

On another very important point is it also never too early in helping to solicit sponsors for the Festival. As in the past $100.00 for any food/game booth or $200.00 or more for the entertainment. NO amount is too small. Also it is very important to keep in mind how you yourself can think of ways you want to help out at the Festival this year, whether it's setting up the grounds, working at a booth or taking the Festival down.

Main Raffle Tickets are now available in the back of Church. Please pick your books up. Selling them is a very important part of our Festival income."

As always you can contact me at anytime with any questions by calling me at 595-0525 or email me at: tar1603@hotmail.com.

Thank You. Tom Rizzo Festival Chairman

Operation: Support our Deployed Troops Donation Drive

The Ladies Society is sponsoring a donation drive for deployed troops overseas. Our goal is to send each soldier 'a little bit of home' to let them know we are praying for their health and safety. Suggested donation items include travel size toiletries, batteries, non-perishable snacks, candy and cookies. Please see the donation box in the church vestibule for a complete list of suggested donation items.

You can place donated items in the donation box marked 'Operation Support our Deployed Troops' in the church vestibule until Sunday, May 15.

If you would like to make a monetary donation to cover the cost of postage, or would like us to send a personal care package to a specific soldier, please contact Ladies Society member, Carol Szulczewski, at 262.496.8086. Thank you in advance for your generosity and support.
