Guide to the Catechism of the Catholic Church

Hold High the Cross

Alfred McBride, O. Praem., Article #21

“It is his ‘love to the end’ (Jn 13:1) that confers value on the redemption, reparation, expiation, and satisfaction of the sacrifice of Christ,” Catechism, 616.

According to legend, the thorn bird sings just once in its life. Leaving its nest, it searches for a bush with long, sharp thorns. Upon finding such a bush it impales itself on the biggest thorn and begins to outcarol the lark. The world pauses to listen and God smiles with pleasure at the captivating melody. What is the message of this sacrificial music? Life’s most satisfying moment can only be purchased at the price of great pain. The reality of this message occurred in Christ’s passion and death. Of all the words and acts of Jesus, none have the capacity to touch the heart with love and gratitude more than those that occurred during His passion. That is why the passion narratives are the longest and most moving parts of all four Gospels. Christian devotion has organized reflection on the passion into the five sorrowful mysteries of the Rosary, the fourteen Stations of the Cross, and the seven last words of Jesus. Prayerful people have taken possession of the passion to praise God for this supreme act of divine love by which we are redeemed from all that oppresses us, above all from sin. All of us from Adam and Eve to the present generation, who, in pride and disobedience, have sinned are responsible for the death of Christ. The Jewish people are not to blame. “Even though the Jewish authorities and those who followed their lead pressed for the death of Christ, neither all Jews indiscriminately, at that time, nor Jews today, can be charged with the crimes committed during his passion” (Non-Christian Religions, 4).

The Lamb of God

The whole life of Christ was an offering to the Father for the forgiveness of our sins. John the Baptist called Jesus the Lamb of God come to take away our sins. At the Last Supper Jesus anticipated His free self-offering. In instituting the Eucharist, He spoke of His body to be broken and His blood to be poured out. At Gethsemane, He surrendered His will to the Father. There, and on the Cross, he substituted His obedience for our disobedience. At the ninth hour on Good Friday, the high priest killed the last lamb at the Temple, saying one word over the victim: “Kalah,” it is finished. At Calvary, at the same moment, Jesus, the Lamb of God, said His last word: “Kalah,” it is finished. Jesus completed His obedience to the Father. We hope to do the same. He died a real death and was buried in a real grave. The Creed says He descended into hell, that is, into the region of the just who had died. There, He opened the gates of heaven to the just ones who came before Him.

Reflection

Why did Christ die for us?

“Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures” (1 Cor 15:3). Our salvation arises from God’s initiative of love for us. “He loved us and sent his Son as expiation for our sins” (1 Jn 4:10; Catechism, 619-620).

What was the meaning of Christ’s obedience?

By His loving obedience to the Father, “even to accepting death on a cross,” (Phil 2:8). Jesus realized the expiatory mission of the Suffering Servant: “Through his suffering, my servant shall justify many, and their guilt he shall bear” (Is 53:11; Catechism, 623).

What does “descent into hell” mean?

The region of the dead to which Christ descended Scripture calls hell, sheol, or the underworld because those who are there are deprived of the vision of God. There, He opened the gates of heaven to the just who went before Him (Catechism, 633,637).

Prayer

Father, by the suffering and death of your only Son, Jesus Christ, make us pleasing to you. Alone we can do nothing, but may His perfect sacrifice wins us your mercy and love.

Texas Roadhouse Free Lunch

Mark your calendars for March 28th for a free all-you-can-eat free lunch consisting of a pulled pork sandwich, applesauce, fries and water or soda. This free lunch will be at the Kenosha Texas Roadhouse from 11 am to 2 pm. Local cancer survivors and caregivers will be serving you the lunch. Please tip them generously as 100% of the donations will support Relay for Life. Please let the server know you are there to support the St Therese Relay Team so the team gets credited with your donation. Fundraisers like this ensure the American Cancer Society can continue to save lives by helping people stay well and get well; by finding cures; and by fighting back!

The St. Therese Holy Name Society will sponsor a pizza dinner on Saturday, April 16 from 5 to 7 pm in the parish hall. Pizza, salad, garlic bread and desert will be served. Advance tickets will be $7.50 for adults and $5 for kids 3-11. Ages 2 and under eat free. Tickets will be $10 at the door. Tickets will be sold after all Masses or you can call the parish office to rsvp before April 13 at 262-694-4695.

GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION

A Pontifical Collection

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support Christians in the Holy Land.

Through the Good Friday Collection, you join with Catholics around the world to stand in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace in a troubled land.

In these challenging times in the Middle East, your support means that our church will conduct parish ministry, provide Catholic education, feed the hungry, build housing for Christians, maintain shrines and operate refugee centers in the Holy Land.

Christians, along with all of the clergy and religious who serve in the Holy Land, will deeply appreciate your prayers and financial help! The political, religious and military challenges in the Holy Land are more complex than ever. The wars, unrest and instability have been especially hard on Christians.

Our parish will support Christians in the Holy Land through the Good Friday Collection, as requested by Pope Francis. Like Simon of Cyrene, you can help carry the cross under very difficult circumstances in the Holy Land.

PLEASE BE GENEROUS!
