Guide to the Catechism of the Catholic Church

Scripture Tells the Holy Spirit's Story

Alfred McBride, O. Praem., Article #25

"The prophetic texts about the sending of the Holy Spirit are sayings in which God speaks to the heart," Catechism, 715. In the ancient Jewish liturgy, Pentecost was the feast of Mount Sinai. It celebrated the giving of the Ten Commandments to Moses and the sealing of God's covenant with His people. A mighty wind and fire swept the slopes of Sinai, evoking awe. The wind of the Christian Pentecost is the new Sinai. Once again the mighty breath/Spirit of God and His fiery presence sweeps through the human community. Pentecost is a new Sinai in which the Holy Spirit is set as a seal on the universe, a declaration of God's irrevocable love for all people. Scripture reveals the work of the Holy Spirit in the entire work of creation and redemption.

The Holy Spirit in the Old Testament

The work of the Holy Spirit is present, though hidden in signs and images, in all the key moments of the Old Testament. We see the Holy Spirit's action in the call of Abraham and as the cloud and fire associated with the call of Moses and giving of the Law. He anoints judges and kings and speaks through the prophets. After the exile, the Holy Spirit prompts the expectation of the messiah. His gifts will dwell in the messiah. The Holy Spirit will enable Him to be the historic fulfillment of the redemptive Suffering Servant (cf. Is 53).

The Holy Spirit in the New Testament

In the New Testament, the Holy Spirit's work becomes visible, overshadowing Mary at the Annunciation, giving force and energy to the ministry of John the Baptist, and powerfully linked to the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. The Holy Spirit creates a community of all the devout poor who come to Christ: the shepherds, Simeon and Anna, the Cana couple, and the first disciples. When His hour had come to be glorified, Jesus promised the gift of the Holy Spirit and explained that the Holy Spirit will dwell in us, make clear the full meaning of His teaching, and lead us into all truth. As for our sinfulness, the Holy Spirit will convict us of our evil and convert our hearts to Christ and the gift of grace. On Easter night, Jesus breathed on His Apostles the gift of the Holy Spirit (Jn 20:20). This is sometimes called the "Johannine Pentecost." It anticipates the full public gift of the Holy Spirit that is described in St. Luke's account of Pentecost (Acts 2). Christians should be souls on fire. We will be warm as long as we stay near the Spirit of divine fire.

Reflection

1. What are the hidden works of the Holy Spirit in the Old Testament?

Through signs and images we perceive the work of the Spirit in creation, the calls of Abraham and Moses, the anointing of judges and kings, the inspiration of the prophets, the promise and expectation of the Messiah (cf. Catechism, 703-715).

2. What are the great public acts of the Holy Spirit in the Gospels?

The Gospels manifest the Spirit's dramatic presence in the Annunciation to Mary, the ministry of John the Baptist, and the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ (Catechism, 717-730).

3. What are the two accounts of the giving of the Holy Spirit?

John 20 narrates how Jesus breathes on the Apostles on Easter night, giving them the Spirit. Acts 2 tells us of the public and definitive gift of the Spirit to the Church (Catechism, 730-731).

Prayer

Come, Holy Spirit, lead us into truth. Unite us with Jesus. Help us prefer grace to sin. Fill us with divine life and love. Make us courageous witnesses of the Gospel.

Festival Corner

This year Mt. Carmel will be celebrating our 69th Annual Festival, something our parish family is very proud of. The dates this year are July 8-9-10. Along with our traditional religious procession on Sunday we will have our great Homemade Pasta Dinner on Friday and Saturday evening. We are presently looking for a family to take over the Cream Puffs for our Festival, please contact Tom Rizzo for information. All of our Festival information is now on our Facebook and the Mt. Carmel Website pages. Please share all the info with your family and friends.

We are now ready to start collecting items for the White Elephant Booth for our Festival. Any household items except clothing will be accepted. Please contact the Parish Office only during regular business hours at 652-7660 or Anna Darbutus at 657-5848 or Tom Rizzo at 595-0525 anytime.

It is also never too early to help solicit sponsors for the Festival. As in the past $100.00 for any food/game booth or $200.00 or more for the entertainment. NO amount is too small. We will need volunteers for the booths and help both on Thurs., July 7 and Mon., July 11 for setting up and taking down the Festival. Please contact Tom Rizzo at anytime to volunteer your help.

Thank You. Tom Rizzo Festival Chairman, 595-0525 or email me at: tar1603@hotmail.com.
